We're curious why you are whiling away your time at Buck's when you could be at one of our stylish Woodhouse Fish Company restaurants in San Francisco. We have lobster rolls. Buck's does not. We have fried Ipswich clams. Buck's doesn't. We have oysters and once again, none at Buck's. Of course maybe we shouldn't be too hard on our parents because we learned a thing or two at Buck's as kids. But that was then. The Woodhouse is now. Come see us at our original location on Market at 14th between the Castro and the Mission and our newest place on Fillmore at Bush in Pacific Heights. Are we on our way to an empire? What do you think?

IF WHAT IS WANTED IS GREAT

SEAFOOD take my advice: put your fork down, get in your car and drive to San Francisco for the best Ipswich clams, oysters and lobster rolls on the coast. Yes, go right now.

The sons are at it big time at the Woodhouse Fish Company. Their two seafood restaurants (one on Market at 14th, near the Mission and one on Fillmore at Bush in Pacific Heights) are places where you can catch the feeling of Barbary Coast but with a modern SF vibe.

Watch for this space for news on their next place, soon...
